

MU again has drawn Nebraska as a first round foe, leading off the second night of first round play at 7:30 Wednesday. Kansas and Cornell play the nightcap.

BYU tore considerable gloss off Colorado, the league's early surprise, with a fearsome double flogging, at Provo, ~~73~~x 70-53, and 84-53, over the weekend. The defending conference champions were fresh from a 60-57 conquest of Iowa and carried a 3-0 into the Utah highlands.

Kansas also lost its perfect slate in ~~xxxx~~ an 81-61 drubbing at the hands of SMU at Dallas. These three games left Iowa State as the conference's only unbesmirched ensemble. The Cyclones could come in that way too since they figure to dispose of Colorado A & M and Denver on a western swing this week and handle Vanderbilt at Ames December 23 in their final pre-meet test.

These three games plus KU's matches with Rice, Monday in Houston and return against SMU Wednesday in Lawrence, ~~xxxx~~ are the big ones before tournament time.
