Iowa State will hit the Municipal auditorium planks Tuesday with the youngest team in the tenth annual Big Seven tournament.

Bill Strannigan, the now gray-thatched former Wyoming ace, has only three seniors on his entire squad, and only one of them is a starter. Likewise there are only three lettermen available, smallest number of any competing team. And frequently three as many as three sophomores have been starting through the Cyclones ' first six games.

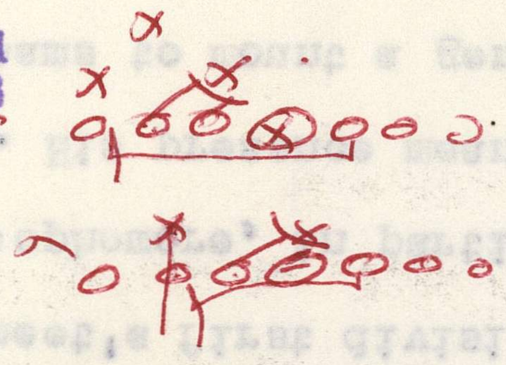

Nonetheless State must be conceded a chance of duplicating last year's third place finish, which equalled the high-water -mark of Cyclone tournament successes and marked only the second time it has finished in the meet's first division.

One sophomore, in particular is an important one. He is Don Medsker, 6-8 center. His presence means the Iowans will be one of only three tournament teams to mount a genuine big man in the pivot. Kansas State and Colorado are the other two.

The big loss was Chuck Duncan, brawny 6-5 center, who won the meet scoring title last year on 75 points and ran second to Colorado's Burdette Waldorson in the conference derby with a 22.5 mean.

State was headed toward an unbeaten pre-tournament record until running into a 62-65 loss to Denver at Denver Wednesday. It had x bowled over four consecutive foes.xnx

The Cyclones tackle Kansas State in the second game of Tuesday ni ht's opening guardxx card. This should be the best match of the first two sessions and will bring together Medsker and Jack Parr, the Wildcats' 6-9 seophomore pivot , plus Thompson and Pachin Vicens, the Purple's sturdy backliner flyer who is a dribbler and play-maker of Gary's ilk.

Colorado and Oklahoma ring up the curtain in the first game at 7:30 p.m. Missouri's defending champions face Nebraska in Wednesday night's opener with Kansas and Cornell following.

Medsker, one-time all-prep luminary from Englewood, Colo., has lived up to expectations. Up to Friday's match with ~~xtgvx~~ Vanderbilt, ranked 19th in the latest UP poll, he was averging 12.6 points per game.

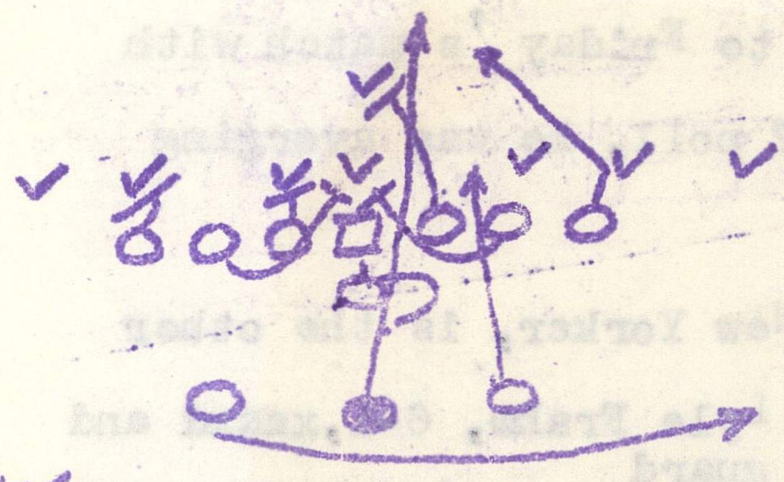

John Crawford, 6-5 New Yorker, is the other ~~ax~~ rookie who has answered every tipoff call. Lyle Frahm, 6-1, ~~xxxxx~~ and Larty Swanson, ~~6x~~ 5-11, ~~x~~ divided starting duty through the first five games before giving way to Senior Arnie Saarde, 5-10 non-letterman from at guard Manning, Ia.

Ace of this squad is Gary Thompson, 5-10, 160-pound guard, and quite possibly the Big Seven's finest clutch player. It was Thompson who engineered last year's opening-round ~~xyxwtx~~ 82-81 upset of Kansas with four consecutive free throws in the last ~~kvxwx~~ three minutes. He went on top top all sophomores in conference play with a 16.0 average over the 12-game route. He is s fine play-maker and defender and ~~fivxwx~~ gives the Cyclones poised floor leadership. Up to the Vanderbilt game he trailed only Missouri's Normn Stewart and Chuck Rolles of Cornell on the pre-tournament scoring tables with a 19.8 mean. He has been hled under 20 in only one game .

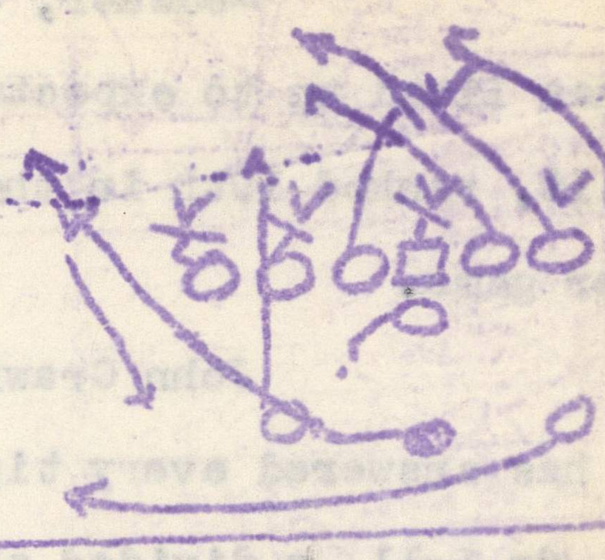

Chuck Vogt, 6-5 junior, and a holdover regular, like Thompson, teams with Crawford at forward to give the Cyclones a towering front line. He averaged 13.0 through the first five ~~sixx~~ games.

The Cyclones have been getting good secondary wcroing too. Seven of 11 men used against Texas Tech notched at least one point. The pattern ran 7 of 9 against Colorado A & M; 11 of 15 against North Dakota State , and six of eight against Tulsa, which State plastered with its first defeat pf the season.

Mizzou Spurt Hands Illinois 74-73 Defeat

COLUMBIA, MO.—(AP)—Norm Stewart, Missouri guard, scoreless from the field for the first 21 minutes, led the Tigers in a blistering second half rally to a 74-73 victory over Illinois Saturday night. Illinois led at the half, 41-28.

Stewart tallied 31 points, hitting 11 of his 13 shots as he led the second half reversal.

In the first half the taller Illinois team outplayed Missouri on the backboards and set up a defense which the cold Tigers couldn't penetrate.

The second half was just the opposite. Missouri out-fought the visitors on the backboards, stole the ball time after time and cracked the Illinois defense wide open.

Six times Illinois took the ball downcourt and six times Missouri snagged it without Illinois scoring a point. Missouri caught up at 45-45, and it was even-up until the close finish.

Bill Ridley led Illinois' scoring with 21 points, and Paul Judson added 20.

Missouri's shooting average was 40.7 per cent, and Illinois had 39.6 per cent.

Vandy Whips Sooners

NASHVILLE, TENN. — (UP) The Vanderbilt Commodores, led by guard Al Rochelle's 25 points, defeated Oklahoma, 78-69, Saturday night for their fourth straight victory of the young basketball season.

Vanderbilt went in front at the start and never was headed although the Sooners cut the margin to five points with 10 minutes left.

But Vanderbilt quickly pulled away to a 15-point lead with less than three minutes to go. The Commodores led, 36-32, at the half.

Rochelle collected 20 of his 25 points on 10 field goals. He was followed by his running mate at guard, Babe Taylor, with 19.

Forward Joe King and guard Jimmy Pick each hit 16 for Oklahoma. Sooner center Leroy Bacher collected 12 in the first half but was blanked in the second half.

Missouri Bows

Lafayette, Ind. (AP)—Purdue's Boilermakers opened their pre-Big Ten basket ball season Saturday night with a 62-58 victory over Missouri, which couldn't get the rebounds from Lamar Lundy, Purdue's star 6-foot-6 football end.

Lundy hauled down 17 rebounds. He scored only eight points.

Ron Jecha, 6-foot-5 Purdue forward, was high scorer with 20 points, two more than Norman Stewart, 6-5 Missouri guard.

Joe Campbell, little Purdue guard who is NCAA golf champion, suffered a leg injury late in the game.

Lenny Dawson, hot passing Purdue quarterback, made his first appearance in a varsity basket ball game—for 22 seconds at the end.

FORT COLLINS, COLO.—(Æ) Colorado A&M upset the University of Colorado, 60-58, here Thursday night when Rich Gregory tipped-in a rebound with four seconds left to play.

Colorado had the biggest lead of the game at 19-9 midway of the first half. The Aggies clung to Colorado's heels through the entire game, however, and overcame a five-point deficit in the last four minutes of play.

At that point, it was 56-51 for the Buffaloes.

Then guard Jack Bryant hit a drive-in and a quick jump shot from the keyhole for the Aggies, and Gregory canned a layup to push the Aggies ahead, 57-56, and was fouled on the shot. He made the charity toss to make it 58-56 with 1:52 remaining.

Cyclones Nix 'Prophet Bill'

By GEORGE FRANCO
Denver Post Executive Sports Editor

FORT COLLINS, Dec. 20.—Bill (We'll be lucky if we finish sixth) Strannigan isn't a very good salesman.

True, his seasonal employment as basketball coach at Iowa State doesn't require too much talent long salesmanship lines. But few among the local group which heard his prediction "we'll be lucky to finish sixth (in the Big Seven conference race)" would buy that after watching his current Cyclones breeze by Colorado A. & M., 72-60, here Monday night.

But the dapper tutor gets another chance to prove—or disprove, if you would—his prophecy when he brings his team to Denver to meet Hoyt Brawner's Pioneers Wednesday night at the D. U. Fieldhouse.

Little Gary Thompson, the 5-foot 8-inch home-grown (Roland, Ia.) product, was Strannigan's key agent in the victory, totalling 24 points by nearly every conceivable method and twice personally putting the damper on determined Aggie rallies.

The first came after A. & M.'s most serious threat midway in the first half when Aggies' Stan Albert and Boyd Grant shot their mates into a 17-16 margin with 10:45 played. This was the only time A. & M. managed to lead.

I-STATE AHEAD TO STAY

Thompson immediately put Iowa State ahead to stay after Grant's long one-hander had fetched the Aggie edge. First, he hit a driving layup after teammate Arnie Gaarde's neat theft and followed with two more quick fielders to put Iowa State ahead, 22-18, with 14:45 played.

Then, in the second half, his mates helped erect a more comfortable 8-point edge with 8:30 played only to have Aggies' Dick Gregory reduce it with three quick points. Thompson canned two free throws, a layup, a jump shot and a second layup in that order to double A. & M.'s output and give Iowa State a 54-45 edge with 12:15 played.

After that it was just a matter of the final margin as John Crawford, a hustling 6-foot 5-inch New York sophomore, and veterans Chuck Vogt, Lyle Frahm and Jerry Sandbulte joined in the scoring.

CAN'T CHECK LONG SHOTS

Iowa State's defense choked off much of Colorado A. & M.'s close-in offense, but failed to check the long-distance shooting of Albert and Jack Bryant, the veteran Ram guard. Albert popped in seven of 12 field goal attempts and went six-for-nine at the free throw line to lead the Aggie scoring with 20 points. Bryant hit five goals, each one from at least 20 feet out, and added a single free throw for 11 points.

Gregory was practically A. & M.'s lone inside threat, collecting two tip-ins and a keyhole jumper among his five goals. He also added five free throws for 15 hard-earned points.

Don Medsker, the one-time Colorado state prep all-stater from Englewood, had a bad night in his first "home" appearance since departing two years ago. The 6-foot 8-inch soph managed only two goals in 10 attempts and one-for-two at the free throw line for a meager five points.

First round opponent - Colorado, 7:30 p.m. Tuesday

* * *

Oklahoma, ~~the traditional~~ traditional upset team of the Big Seven tournament, again is poised in a prime position to bring off a form reversal when the tenth annual affair opens ~~Tuesday~~ a four-day run Tuesday in Kansas City's Municipal auditorium.

The Sooners, re-grouping under Doyle Parrack, an intense young coach ~~who~~ who played for arch-rival Oklahoma A & M, are paired against Colorado in the meet's tipoff game at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Colorado is the team Oklahoma ambushed, ~~37-71~~ 73-71, in an overtime first-rounder last year. The significance of this conquest can be best understood by this two-edged fact.... CU went on to win the conference while Oklahoma was dead last at ~~1-11~~ 1-11. The upset of the Herd was one of only three games the Sooners won last year in their final season under Bruce Drake.

In 1949 OU toppled Kansas State, ~~the~~ and eventual conference tri-champion in the ~~league~~ league season following, ~~55-50~~ This two was a first-round affair. Only last last second goal by the Wildcats:

Jim Iverson saved State the next year, 55-53. And that was the Purple's best all-time team, going all the way to the NCAA finals. In '51 Drake's Shufflers skidded unbeaten Stanford into the discard in the opening round. The Indians had come into the meet undefeated.

Colorado and OU are much more closely matched this winter than last, on paper, at least. Still, the Buffaloes will rank as solid favorites, barring tremendous upheavals in the two clubs' few remaining engagements before tournament time.

Even though Colorado last four of five starters which took it to third place in the NCAA last year, it is starting a full team of lettermen. In contrast, Oklahoma is returning fusing two sophomores with one holdover letterman and two returning regulars in its starting five. Furthermore, Parrack shows only four lettermen on his entire squad, fewer than any conference team, and is carrying 10 sophomores on his 18-man squad. An 11th, Fred Hood, 6-4 200-pounder, will miss the tourney because of duty with Sooner football fortunes in the Orange bowl.

Parrack's rookie starters are Joe King, 6-6½ Norman forward who is Bacher's relief at center, and Joe Jones, 6-1½ Oklahoma Cityan. A third soph, Bill Pinkerton, 6-4 Oklahoma Cityan, came off the bench to score 18 points in last week's 69-59 vanquishing of Arkansas.

-d Abbey, 6-4 Denverite, is the lettered junior starter. He plays opposite King in the front line. Bacher, the 6-5½, 230-pound pachyderm with the soft touch, is at center, of course, with Peck, a leaping little guy cut from the same cloth as the departed Lester Lane, pairs with Jones in the backline.

This club carries more balanced height than those Big Seven fans are accustomed to seeing. Drake became famous for his Dribbling Dwarfs, which often were hubbed by a giant like Bill Waters or Marcus Freiberger. Parrack has no one as towering as the 6-11 Freiberger, but iverall squad height is the best in recent seasons if not of all time.

Bacher will carry a five-gamr average of 16.4 into Friday's collision with Illinois at Urbana. Peck is travelling at 13.4; King 12.6.

Bacher is successor to Missouri's Med Park as the league's best maneuveror around the boards and owns a touch as deft as Gerald Tucker, OU's Hels Foundation Player of the Year in 1947 and this tourney's first scoring champion in the front end of that season.

Peck established himself as one of the loop's best dribblers and junp-shooters as a sophomore last year.

The 33-year-old Parrack can be counted upon to wring the most from a squad which represents the first step in a hoped-for Sooner rise back to conference contention. As expected from a Hank Iba disciple, Parrack has installed slow-down basketball. Drake could put toegther unsurpassed ball-control when he wished, but Parrack is likely to go with it all the way. The Sooners have put up an average of 56 shots per game. The defense was good enough to limit Temple Tucker, Rice's heralded 6-10 sophomore, to his season's low of 10 points December 8, altho Oklahoma lost, 47-62.

The Sooners tackle their second Big Ten opponent in Illinois. Ohio State flogged them, 89-68, December 12.
