Medsker, one-time all-prep luminary from Engle-wood, Cole., has lived up to expectations. Up to Friday's match with htgwx Vanderbilt, ranked 19th in the latest UP poll, he was averging 12.6 points per game.

John Crawford, 6-5 New Yorker, is the other as rockie who has answered every tipoff call. Lyle Frahm, 6-1, xmard and at guard

Larty Swanson, fix 5-11, a divided starting duty through the first five games before giving way to Senior Arnie aarde, 5-10 non-letterman from pound guard, and quite possibly the Big even's finest clutch player.

It was Thompson who engineered last year's opening-round myseix 82-81 upset of Kansas with four consecutive free throws in the last hysex three minutes. He went on top top all sophomores in conference play with a 16.0 average over the 12-game route. He is a fine play-maker and defender and fireax gives the Cyclones poised floor leadership. Up to the Vanderbilt game he trailed only Missouri's Norman Stewart and Chuck Rolles of Cprnell on the pre-tournament scoring tables with a 19.8 mean. He has been held under 20 in only one game.

Chuck Vogt, 6-5 junior, and a holdover regular, like Thompson, teams with Crawford at forward to give the Cyclones a five towering front line. "e averaged 13.0 through the first aix games.

The Cyclones have been getting good secondary scroing too. Seven of 11 men used against Texas Tech notched at least one point. The pattern ran 7 of 9 against Colorade A & M; 11 of 15 against North Taketa State, and six of eight against Tulsa, which State plastered with its first defeat of the season.
