Tough Defense Holds Hawks Out of Range

By TEX MAULE

The Southern Methodist Mustangs, an icy calm and deadly basketball team, shot down high-ranked Kansas University Saturday night, 81-61. The Jayhawks came to Dallas ranked 12th in the United Press national basketball poll and 18th in the poll of the Associated Press.

They were never in the game with the cat-quick, aggressive Methodists. Doc Hayes' polished team controlled the rebounds, outran the Kansas fast break, disorganized their pattern plays and, through it all, fired with beautiful accuracy from all ranges to puncture the Jayhawk defense.

Probably the strongest factor in the surprisingly easy Methodist victor was a tremendous defense which shut Kansas out of the easyshot area under the basket. In the first half, the Jayhawks could work the ball in close only six times and hit three of the shots.

The Mustangs, on the other hand, had nine shots from point blank range and scored on all of them. They sometimes outran the Kansas defense with a sizzling fast break for a quick goal, but more often they bided their time, moving the ball quickly and well around the perimeter of Kansas defenders until they could pull a player out of position enough to find running room for a driving shot under the hoop.

This was probably the best SMU See PONIES, Page 4, Col. 4

OREGON STATE ON SHORT END 63-53 SCORE.

Colorado, Outshot, 24.18, Fr Field, Has a 27.5 Margin From the Charity Line.

Corvallis, Ore., Dec. 4.(AP). The University of Colorado Bu faloes made free throws cour as they defeated Oregon Stat 63-53 in last night's basketbal game.

Colorado, third in the N. C. A. A. tournament last year made only eighteen field goals compared with twenty-four for Oregon State, the defending Pacific Coast conference champion. But on the free throw line, Colorado outscored the Staters 27-5.

The game was tied three times in the first half and was knotted again with just seven minutes remaining. At that point, however, the piore experienced Buffaloes pulled ahead to win by the 10-point margin.

Dave Gambee, Oregon State sophomore forward, was high scorer of the game with twenty-two. He fouled out with six minutes left to play and his departure hurt the Staters.

Bill Peterson, Colorado guard, was high for his team with eighteen. Center George Hanna had sixteen and Forward Jim Ranglos had thirteen for the winners.

Jayhawks Keep Big 7 Mark Clean

KANSAS CITY, Dec. 8.—(AP)— 9. The University of Kansas Jayhawks squeaked past Wichita's Wheatshockers, 56-55, Wednesday Chight to keep the Big Seven conference basketball victory streak rolling at six games.

Earlier this week Missouri, Kansas, Colorado, Oklahoma and Kansas State each won over major opponents.

Thursday night's card offers Iowa State against Texas Tech at Ames, Iowa, and Oklahoma against Rice at Houston. Texas Tech has lost by big scores to Missouri and Kansas State this week.

Kansas, which opened its season in a 91-70 victory over Northwestern on Monday, had to turn on the heat in the second half to edge Wichita which was dedicating its new field house before a capacity crowd of 10,000.

K-State Offense Falters After Forging 44-31 Gap

BY PAUL DE WEESE Special Correspondent

DES MOINES, IOWA-Kansas State lost to Drake University, 70-64, here Monday night in a wild, scrambling cage display that saw the Wildcats blow a 13-point lead in the second half.

After building to a 42-31 advantage at intermission, and pulling out 44-31 as the second half opened, the Cats fought off a determined set of Bulldogs for five minutes of the second period and led 55-45.

Then K-State lost its scoring punch—netting only nine points in those last 15 hectic minutes.

Drake threw up a tight defense that allowed the Wildcats no certain shots. In attempting to make a scrap of it the Cats were charged with eight fouls in the late stages which the Bulldogs cashed in for 13 free throws and the ball game.

It was a fairly simple matter for Drake to keep the lid on Wildcat scoring through the secondhalf melee. The Bulldogs played a tight man-for-man defense and effectively kept big Jack Parr, 6-9 Wildcat center, from shooting.

With K-State long shots going wild, the Wildcats limped out the time. The K-State shooting percentage fell from 46 per cent for the first half to a meager 35 per cent for the game as the 'Cats hit only 27 per cent in the final 20 minutes.

Biggest statistical difference in the two teams came in rebounding where the Bulldogs towered far above K-State, ending with 43 recoveries to the Wildcats' 23.

Leading K-State scorer was 5-8 guard Pachin Vicens who had six baskets and three free throws for 15 points. That tied Drake's Red Murrell for scoring honors. Parr had 14 on five baskets and four charity throws, but the big sophomore got only five rebounds. Willie Cerf, 6-6, Bulldog senior center, led with 10 rebounds.

Drake stepped out first, scoring as Dave Hutchins, 6-2, senior forward, dropped in a free throw in the first minute, and the two teams swapped leads until Parr hit a pair of free throws with three minutes gone to pull out 6-5.

Building on that, the Cats shook off the stubborn Bulldogs slowly, until putting on a scoring spurt in the last four minutes of the first half to get the hailftime margin of 11 points.

While Drake could hit but 29 percent of its 69 field goal attempts, the Bulldogs dropped in 30 of 39 free throws to outdiss tance K-State by 28 points at o the line.

Part of the rash of Wildcat is fouls in the final minutes came ss as they pressed Drake for the h-ball. The Bulldogs went into a semi-freeze with four minutes he remaining.

ed The win gives Drake a 3-1 recof ord for the season, the only loss ur-coming by 62-63 to Tulsa here nly Saturday. The Bulldogs lost Ili- after leading by 18 with 15 minned utes to play. Tonight's action rly was almost an exact reverse of that.

Hoosiers Squeeze By Mizzou, 81-78

COLUMBIA, MO. — (UP) — The University of Indiana, led by Wallace Choice and Charlie Brown, squeezed by Missouri, 81-78, here Saturday night for its third victory of the season.

Choice was the Hoosiers' leading scorer with 19 points but it was Brown who, besides bagging a total of 16 points, dropped in an insurance basket in the last 10 seconds of the game after the Hoosiers had stalled through most of the final three minutes.

Missouri, with center Chuck Denny doing most of the scoring, built up a 41-36 lead at the half, but the Hoosiers jumped ahead after three minutes in the second half. The Tigers were never in front after that.

Norm Stewart hit two free throws to pull the Tigers within a point, 79-78 with little more than a minute to play. But Brown's basket was the clincher.

Stewart was the high scorer with 21 points and Denny had 17 for Missouri.

TIGERS COAST IN

Norm Stewart Hits 30 Points in 81 to 57 Victory Over Idaho.

NO THREAT BY THE VANDALS

Missouri Takes Command After Six Minutes and Stays on Top Thereafter.

(By The Star's Own Service.)

Columbia, Mo., Dec. 19.

—Norman Stewart scored thirty points to lead the University of Missouri to an 81 to 57 victory over the University of Idaho here tonight.

The Tigers shook out of a 5-5 tie before the game was six minutes old, and were in absolute command thereafter. Late in the first period the Pacific Coast conference team closed to within six points of the free-scoring Missourians, but by intermission time the Tigers had widened the advantage to 42-27, and they raced away to a 30point lead early in the second period and kept an advantage of about that proportion most of the way. Coach Wilbur Stalcup found the secondary scoring he has been looking for to back up Stewart's regular barrage. Bill Ross made sixteen, Redford Reichert twelve and Lionel Smith ten, despite the fact that the regulars gave away a good deal of time to the reserves.

Jay Buhler was the high scorer for the vandals with twentytwo points. Tonight's game was the last for the Tigers before the Kansas City tournament which starts December 27. Stalcup dismissed the M. U. squad tonight, and the fifteen men chosen for the tournament trip will return Thursday to resume practice.

The Idaho squad will continue its Mid-West campaign against Washington university at St. Louis Wednesday night.

Stewart, an All-Big Seven guard last season, also set an individual game mark for field goals, connecting on 14 of 26 shots for 54 percent. He also snagged 19 rebounds

The old scoring record of 33 points was set in 1953 by Bob Reiter. The Tigers as a team hit a red-hot 58 percent of their shots from the floor while Tech could muster only 31 percent.

Missouri, with Stewart setting the pace, built up a 51-20 halftime lead. Tech came back in the second half with a full-court press, but the Tigers continued to pour it on with their lead never cut. Texas Tech Missouri

Parr Cans 26 To Pace Easy Win for Cats

BY DICK SNIDER Daily Capital Sports Editor

MANHATTAN—Towering Jack Parr hit 26 points and got plenty of help from Kansas State's long-range shooters here Thursday night as the Wildcats flogged Loyola of Los Angeles, 92-66.

Parr, K-State's 6-9 sophomore hope from Richmond, Va., hit hooks, tip-ins and layups, and leaped high to guide in some shots from far out as he posted his personal single-game high. Squaring their season's record at 2-2, the Wildcats treated a crowd of about 7,200 to a hot first half in which they hit 44 per cent of their shots in posting a 43-29 lead. Parr got six baskets in the first half, and Fritz Schneider and Stone wound up with 12 points. Parr, towering above the opposition that could offer no player taller than 6-4, also collected 20 rebounds in the approximately 35 minutes he played. The total is just three short of the K-State record owned by Dick Knostman. K-State ruled both backboards, f and Loyola's hopes died right there. By the middle of the sec-in the first half, connected on 18 of 39 in the second half for 46 per cent, and 45.1 per cent for the game.

Loyola put up only four fewer shots than K-State, but got only 26 of the 78 for 33 per cent. The victory broke a two-game

State losing streak taken on the road against indiana and Drake. It was the second straight here this season, however, going with the opener against Texas Tech. Loyola led only once, at 3-2, in the first two minutes of the game. K-State quickly erased that and led by 17-7 after 10 minutes. The loss was Loyola's second. The Loyola club is the same one, incidentally, which lost to Southwestern of Winfield in the NAIA tournament in Kansas City last spring. Dave Bernaderet, the Loyola starter as tall as 6-4, led his squad with 18 points, and in rebounds with 10. Little Pachin Vicers, the colorful K-State guard, had another big night, although he scored only four points. He continually fired the ball in to Parr, making the big boy's job easy under the basket. Vicens also spearheaded an occasional Wildcat fast break. Neither team burned the net shooting free throws, but Loyola b really was wretched. The Lions hit 14 of 43 free tosses—a worse percentage than they had from the field. K-State hit 18 of 40 charities. Freeman Hits 40, Buckeyes Rip OU, 89-68

COLUMBUS, OHIO — (A) — Ohio State's Buckeyes, with the sensational Robin Freeman tossing in 40 points, beat the Oklahoma Sooners, 89-68, here Monday night.

All-America Freeman, a senior guard, hit 12 of 20 field goal tries and lobbed in 16 of 20 from the free throw line to bring his four-game average to 36.75.

The Buckeyes got off to an 8-0 lead as the game opened, and the Sooners never again came closer than eight points, despite a strong comeback effort in the last half. Ohio State led, 40-17, at the half.

The Buckeyes, who lost their home opener a week ago, won their third contest in four starts. It was the third loss in four starts for the Sooners.

lowa Rumble Past Huskers For 60-51 Win

IOWA CITY, IOWA -- (AP) -Iowa's highly-ranked basketball team opened the season Saturday with a 60-51 victory over Nebraska to record its 67th consecutive non-conference triumph on the home court. The game was nationally televised.

Iowa, Big Ten Conference champion last year, moved out to an early lead but at halftime had only a 38-34 advantage. The game moved slowly most of the way and was marked by ragged ball-handling by both sides.

A crowd of 7,800—about half of capacity—was on hand.

Bill Logan, Iowa's 6-6 center who has averaged 15.3 points per game the last two seasons, led the scoring with 16 points but got only four of those in the second half when forward Carl Cain warmed up to bag 10 of his 15-point game total.

Nebraska coach Jerry Bush started four sophomores and junior Rex Ekwall. Nebraska couldn't get its fast break "give" and go" offense going against Iowa's defenses, however. Charles Smith, with 13 points, and his sophomore teammate Don Schmidt, with 10, led the scoring for the visitors.

Free throws provided the margin of victory for Iowa. Both sides got 20 field goals. The first half, except for a flurry near the lose, was unusually slow. With 18 minutes gone, Iowa had only 18 points and Nebraska 13.

Michigan Tips Huskers, 77-71

ANN ARBOR, MICH.—(A)— Led by football star Ron Kramer and a 6-6 sophomore Pete Tillotson, Michigan clipped Nebraska, 77-71, Saturday night for its first basketball victory of the season.

Kramer plunked in 20 points and Tillotson 16 to overcome the hot, deadeye shooting of Nebraska's 6-1 forward Charlie Smith. Smith led the scorers with 24 points.

Michigan never trailed, build-i ing up a 50-39 hailmtime lead, but fighting off the Cornhuskers late in the second half when Smith's accurate shooting brought them within one point of the Wolverines at 67-66.

The Wolverines had a good 42.8 shooting percentage in the first half and grabbed 23 rebounds to eight for Nebraska. The taller Michigan team continued to dominate the backboards with 37 rebounds to 14 overall, but its shooting cooled in the second half.

Michigan netted 32 field goals in 84 shots for a 38.1 average. Nebraska sank 21 of 56 shots for 37.5.

Nebraska's Don Smid collected 17 of the Cornhuskers' points and Jim Kubacki had 14.

It was Kramer's three straight baskets with 5½ minutes left that enabled Michigan to widen its one point margin. Tillotson entered the game late in the first half and chipped in four straight baskets in overcoming another Cornhusker rolly

Cats Survive Closing Rush To Save Win

BY FRANK BOGGS Daily Capital Sports Writer

MANHATTAN—Kansas State threw away an 11-point bulge during the second half, then fought back to put Washington's tall Huskies on the short end of a 74-69 decision here Saturday night before 7,800 howling fans.

For a time late in the game, it appeared the Wildcats were going to play Santa Claus and give this one away. With six minutes to go the Huskies had forged a 65-63 margin but Wayne Hutchins, a 6-6 sophomore reserve from Winfield, tipped in his only basket of the night to pull the Cats even at 65-65.

From there in it was a hectic affair but the K-Staters were on top to stay when little Pachin Vicens canned a couple of free shots with 4:42 remaining.

Kansas State went on to mount its lead to 72-65 before the Huskies made it close by nailing two straight baskets to make it 72-69. Eddie Wallace, little 5-9 junior, hit the final Wildcat bucket at the gun to sew it up.

The victory kept Kansas State's home string for this season alive at three in a row and left the Wildcats with a 3-2 mark for the season. The loss dropped the Huskies to a 2-3 record.

The Wildcats will remember a guy named Bruno Boin for a long time to come. The 6-8 Huskie standout was a meanie all night, flipping in nine field goals and seven free shots for 25 points—most of his fielders coming on brilliant hook shots.

Jim Coshow, a 6-6 hotshot, added another 18 points for Washington and snagged 16 rebounds to lead both teams in that department.

Vicens, getting half his points from the foul stripe, led the Wildcats with 20 points. Jack Parr, the Cat's 6-9 sopholic who had averaged 19.5 per game until Saturday, checked out with six points. He got them all in the P2755606 first half and left via the foul route with 11:05 remaining. Kansas State hit 24-of-57 shots from the field for 42.1 per cent, It was a thriller throughout the first half with the score tied four times and the lead switching hands nine times. Finally, K-State pulled into a 41-34 halftime lead and it looked like it might be over. Kansas State boomed to a 47-36 margin after 1:10 had elapsed in the second period as Dick Stone, Gene Wilson and Jack Powell connected while Coshow was sinking one for the Huskies. Then the Pacific Coast club began pecking away and finally : pullèd even at 57-57 when Boin s hit a free throw following Parr's t fifth infraction. Coshow's fielder (about three minutes later gave 1 s the Huskies their first lead of - the second half at 63-61. e K-STATE (74) Pf Tp G-Ga F-Fa Fischer 2-5 2-2 3 6

Parr Buckets 22 to Ramrod Wildcat Rout

BY V. L. NICHOLSON

Daily Capital Sports Writer

MANHATTAN-Jack Parr and Larry Fischer, a pair of sophomores with more promise than a couple of politicians, helped Kansas State open the basketball season with an 89-70 victory over Texas Tech here Tuesday night.

Parr, the Wildcats' 6-9 center from Richmond, Va., led the scoring with 22 points and pulled in 15 rebounds, also high for both clubs. Parr was just as spectacular on defense, consistently knocking down the Red Raiders' shots in midair.

Fischer, a 6-4 forward from Pratt, scored 18 points, including the first four points in each half. He retired to the bench with more than 13 minutes left to play.

A crowd of 7,500 watched the Wildcats emerge from a welter of eight lead changes late in the first half to grab a 40-33 margin at halftime. They had led by 17-9 after eight minutes of play, but a mild scoring drouth allowed Tech to catch up six minutes before intermission.

The Red Raiders still were only six points back, at 56-50, with 13 minutes remaining, but they rapidly went from bad to worse. The 19-point margin at the finish was the largest the Wildcats ever had.

K-State displayed more potential than polish, but this looked like the squad that might lead the school back up the basketball heights. The victory was not surprising, in view of Missouri's 92-60 win over the same team Monday night, but it was satisfactory for an opener. K-State connected on 19 of 31 field goal attempts in the second half for a blazing 61 per cent average. The Wildcats hit 31 of 67 attempts over-all for a game percentage of 46 per cent. Jim Reed, a pesky 6-4 forward, kept the Raiders in contention for awhile with his 18 points, but he fouled out with nearly 11 minutes still to play. Parr and Fischer had plenty of help. Fritz Schneider scored 14 points, all on field goals, and Pachin Vicens, the clever little Latin from Manhattan, added 11 and played his usual fine floor game.

Except for that short slump in the first half, K-State actually never had much trouble. Fischer got the Wildcats off to a good start when he hit a layup off the fast break and then canned the first two of eight straight free throws. Parr gave a hint of what was to come when he scored the Wildcats' next four points, on tip-ins. The big center acted as a human backboard on several of his baskets, shoving teammates' missed shots back into the netting. Reed and Du-Wayne Blackshear, who hit 14 points, sparked Tech's best rally. A pair of free shots by Reed gave Tech its first lead at 25-24, and the teams swapped one-point leads eight times before K-State finally pulled away. The Wildcats outscored the Texans, 10-2, during the final four minutes of the first half. Parr's tip-ins accounted for four of those points, and Vicens also got four on a short jump shot and a pair of free throws. That was the ball game for all practical purposes, and coach Tex Winter let the subs begin mopping up with eight minutes still to go in the second half. the second half.

The loss gives K-State a 1-1 - reading as they move on to Drake University at Des Moines, s Ia., for a Monday night game with the Bulldogs. Indiana now has two straight wins at home las they prepare to meet St. Louis at Bloomington Monday night.
