

Oklahoma Ambles By Porkers, 69-59

NORMAN, OKLA. — (UP) — Oklahoma University broke a three-game losing streak here Thursday, defeating by 69-59 a winless Arkansas team.

The Sooners took the lead early in the second half and kept a spread of three to four points or more the remainder of the game.

Guard Jimmy Peck collected 20 points in leading Oklahoma to its second home victory of the year. Teammate Bill Pinkerton, forward, followed with 18.

Manuel Whitley led Arkansas with 14.
