

BIG SEVEN tournament
k.c. star
2nd of 11

BIG RED SCOREBOARD

Record to date: W L ; 83 Buffalo 73; 82 Colgate 76;
59 Harvard 81; Brown .

Returning lettermen - (5) - Milt Kogan, f; Max Mattes, f; Dick Meade, g; Chuck Rolles, g; Ray Zelek, c

1955 Ivy league finish - 5th, ~~x~~ 8-6~~x~~ ; all games + 10-13

Previous tournament finishes - First tournament

Remaining pre-tournament games - Dec. 23 Washington of St. Louis at St. Louis

First round opponent - ~~WZ0xp~~ Kansas , 9:30 p.m. Wednesday

* * *

Cornell, Guest team for the 1955 Big Seven tournament, will hit the field with ~~gexx~~ impressive front line size and two fine athletes in the backcourt when it plays the final game of the ~~x~~ opening round against ~~A~~nsas Wednesday night in Municipal auditorium.

Coached by Royner Greene, former Illinois basketball and baseball player of the late twenties, the Big Red will present a solid starting lineup and ~~xxwixkingvsvpyxwara~~ a ~~x~~ promising sophomore bench.

Both forwards , Max Mattes, and Larry Pearson, stand 6-4.
Center Ray Zelek is 6-5 by 220. Greene employs a combination of Zalek and one of the forwa rds in a flexible double post which often stations the deep man on the baseline with Zelek high.

The guards, co-captains Dick Meade and Chuck Rolle s will present a defensive problem akin to Oklahoma's skittery combination of ~~x~~ Jimmy Peck and Lester Lane, who upset Colorado, the eventual conference champion, in the opening round last December.