

JAYHAWKS BAT DOW

MADISON, WIS. — (Special) — The Kansas Jayhawks stepped out on a 35-19 halftime lead and then weathered Wisconsin's second-half rally to defeat the Badgers, 74-66, in a nationally televised game here Saturday afternoon.

Wisconsin, as cold as the weather outside at the start, twice trimmed the Kansas lead to six points during the second half in a valiant attempt to keep TV viewers in their seats. However, the Jayhawks quelled each Badger rally with a withering scoring blast and the outcome never was in doubt.

Captain Dallas Dobbs started most of those Jayhawk scoring bursts and took game scoring honors with 26 points. Dobbs fired his points in at a steady clip, getting 13 in each half.

Dobbs had plenty of help from forward Gene Elstun and center Lew Johnson, who scored 14 points apiece. Dick Miller, a flashy little guard, kept the Badgers within hailing distance by scoring 24 points.

Kansas' victory was its second straight against Big Ten opposition this season. The Jayhawks defeated Wichita in their only other start. Wisconsin now has a 1-2 record.

The first 10 minutes gave no hint of the rout that was to develop. The Badgers had a tenuous 11-10 lead midway of the first half, but that's where the roof began to cave in. Kansas ran in 12 straight points, eight of them by Dobbs, to build a 22-11 margin.

The Jayhawks yielded a lone free throw to Curt Mueller before running in 11 more points in a row. That left the Badgers looking a 33-12 deficit in the face, and they weren't able to do much about it before halftime.

However, Wisconsin opened the second half with seven straight points to make it interesting again at 35-26. The first of several second-half rallies was short-lived, as Dobbs bunched six points in helping build the KU lead back to 45-30.

Miller began to find the range then, and the next Wisconsin
