

Cyclones Hand Hurricane First Setback, 62-50

AMES, Iowa, Dec. 10 (AP)—Two 5-10 guards battled each other Saturday night in a basketball game that Iowa State won over Tulsa, 62-50.

Near the end one of the two, Gary Thompson, kept the Cyclones out of hot water. Junior Born of Tulsa led his teammates with 22 points but it was not enough.

Center Don Medsker paced Iowa State with an 18 point total, making 7 out of 11 shots from the floor. At halftime Born had scored 14 of Tulsa's 22 points. During the second half Thompson counted for 8 points.

Idaho State Edges

Colorado A&M, 59-58

POCATELLO, Idaho, Dec. 10 (AP)—Forward Les Roh tipped in a field goal with four seconds left in the game Saturday night to give Idaho State college a 59-58 basketball victory over Colorado A&M.

Roh's tipin climaxed a great rally that saw the Bengals come from seven points behind in the last four minutes. It gave Idaho State its second straight win over the Rams. The Bengals triumphed 65-54 last night. Idaho State plays in the All-College later this month.
