Surprise Colorado is the surprise team of the Big Seven's early basketball milling as league schools edge toward their tenth annual tournament late this month at Municipal auditorium.

Before the season opened there was sharp division of opinion concerning Buffalo fortunes for 1955-56. Some railbirds thought loss of four starters from last year's conference champions would drop the Herd into the lower reaches of the league. Others maintained the momentum of the past two years, which has seen ~~CU~~ CU represent the league in NCAA tournament play, would carry them into contention right down to the wire.
