

The big senior is averaging 9.2 through CU's first five games and tipped in the winning goal in the 60-57 conquest of Iowa. Ranglos ranks ninth on the pre-tournament scoring tables (through games of last Saturday) at 14.8. Up to the ~~double~~ dual ~~BYU~~ disaster at Provo, Coffman had assumed Jeangerard's shoes by limiting his personal foes to a meager five points through the first three games. A one-point poliving job of Iowa 's Carl Cain featured ~~the~~ this job.

Bill Peterson, 6-0 lettered senior who played well in the NCAA tournament last year, and Dave Mowbray, 6-1 lettered junior,

~~has~~ has taken over for Mock and Harrold in the backline. Mick Mansfield, 6-4 lettered junior, was a starter here until he wrenched a knee in the opener against Oregon State. ~~He~~ He is of doubtful availability for the tourney.

Lee has played at least ~~nine~~ ~~nine~~ in every game, which means he is seasoning ~~supersvlike~~ ~~George~~ ~~vs~~ ~~Hachair~~ ~~vs~~ ~~underclass-~~ men like George Redhair, Bob Helzer, Dick Nicholson, and Jim Jochems as rapidly as possible. The latter is the most important since he is Hannah's ~~replacement~~ ~~and~~ replacement and can maintain that 6'7 height in the pivot.
