A genuine big man, Jim Thom, 6-9 sophomore, has been acquired. The advance word waskx that NU would have scant trouble improving upon if the ratio of last year's overall 9-12 record. However, offixthexpatiexed its first six games is mainatined Nebraska would finish at 8-16.

slow start. For one, Thom apparantly is not ready. Ekwall has been starting at center, thereby reducing NU s height considerably. Veteran Guard whity Buel has not played because of a broken collarbone suffered early in practice. Ekwall has missed two games because of a heavy cold. And coach Jerry Bush, now in his second season at Lincoln, is paying the price Bush experience by starting three sophomores.

These include Don Smidt, 6-4 Anderson, Ind.forward;

List high he appears to be a 6-6 hand under the boards.

Huskers' ply their give-and-go offense against Missouri in the second resision the four-day affair. Even as a sophomore, he led the club in rebounds with an 11/4 average and finished second only to Fagler in the scoring columns at 12.4. He was averaging sixt-tenths higher than that up to Wednesday night's Xamarabox face-off against Vandy.

Another known Husker asset is Norman Coufal, quite likely the league's best two-hand set shooter last year.
