points. Sophomore center Don Medsker got 11 points and 8 rebounds.

John Crawford and Jerry Sandbulte split the time at one forward and each was more than adequate. Sandbulte, fast becoming a valuable fireman, wound up with nine points, including the last two.

It was Iowa State's eighth victory in nine starts.

Friday night, a string of 16 straight free throws before the first miss helped Strannigan's team move towards its sweetest victory of the season.

More Cheers.

The game started with Iowa State being out-cheer-leadered, 7-0.

Thompson began action by stealing a ball, dribbling half the floor and making a lay up. Kansas' Maurice King who fouled out near the end after going almost the whole second half with four fouls answered with a jump shot and then those cheer leaders were really taken care of.
