

Kansas Outshoots Winners

Kansas outshot the Cyclones 28 to 25 from the floor and outrebounded the winners, 57 to 53, but Iowa State made the most of 28 Jayhawk fouls to pour in 32 free throws, only four short of the tournament record.

Duncan, who tabbed 24 of his 34 points the first half, might have toppled the scoring mark of 39 held by Oklahoma's Sherman Norton except for running into foul trouble and having to sit out four-minute stretch during the second half.

It was while Duncan was cooling off on the bench that Kansas pushed ahead 72-66 on two consecutive jump shot goals by Dallas Dobbs, the Jayhawk smoothie from Bartlesville, Okla.

Stranningan waited no longer to get Duncan back in the milling and he promptly connected with a close hook shot to start the Cyclone comeback.

Score Tied Often

During the first 11 minutes the score was tied seven times and the lead swapped hands four times. Iowa State was trailing only a point at 34-33 five minutes before halftime when Kansas made the game's first menacing move with 10 consecutive points to shoot ahead, 44-33.

Iowa State struck back to cut the gap to seven points at 50-43 by halftime. The Cyclones pulled up steadily on Kansas in the second half, but it wasn't until Duncan's two quick ones late in the game that they were able to move in front for the first time since midway in the first period.

The Jayhawks, starting four sophomores along with Dobbs, a junior, were paced by Gene Elstun's 18 points, 16 by Dobbs and 10 by Lew Johnson, 6-7 sophomore center.

Kansas State gave the Sunflower state an even break for the night in the second game as the Wildcats broke ahead of the guest Bears late in the first half and led the rest of the way despite a 32-point bombardment by Cal's 6-7 center Bob McKeen.

Cal, which came to Kansas City with a 7-1 record, led much of the first 10 minutes and held a 27-23 bulge when K-State coach Tex Winter sent 6-11 Jerry Jung ambling into the milling for the first time.

Jung Scores Eight

Jung, who has never quite lived up to his advance billing in three seasons with the Cats, canned the first four shots he took and quickly sparked his mates to a 36-33 lead which they never relinquished.

The Wildcats were in front 45-41 at halftime, sailed ahead by 12 early in the second half and stood off Cal without too much effort the rest of the way.

Jung wound up with 13 points to become one of five Wildcats to reach double figures. Kent Poore was high for the winners, with 17, then came Jim Smith with 14, Jung with 13, Dick Stone with 12 and Pachin Vicens with 11.
