There will be no more eager gang hit the Municipal auditorium planks for the ninth annual Big Seven tournament, beginning Monday, than Kansas.

Phog Allen's 38th Jayhawk edition is not to be confused with its immediate predecessors. But it will scrap, hustle, shoot goals with efficiency and swarm the enemy with depth. There are only four seniors on the current roster and none of them are starters. Fact is, Allen is dedicated to sophomores this winter. He has started four in all four of the Kansans' games to date and ~~is~~ likely will follow that script right thru the tournament.

That Jayhawks probably are not as good as their 4-0 record, which will send them ~~again~~ into ~~the~~ action as the meet's only undefeated squad. For one thing they have played every game in friendly Hoch auditorium, where they haven't been beaten in 33 consecutive starts. For ~~the~~ another, the opposition, save for Tulsa, is not as good
