

Young on Spree

Meanwhile, Jerry Jung, the Cats' 6-11 giraffe, again came off the bench to level a knockout wallop of 16 points to open two leads of 14 points in the final half.

California, playing without ace center Bob McKeen, nabbed a slim lead midway of the second half and then came up with a ball control game to nip the Jayhawks. McKeen injured an ankle in Cal's first round loss to Kansas State Tuesday.

California led 37-35 at halftime, but the lead changed hands twice before the Bears got ahead to stay at 47-46.

Bufs Set Record

Colorado set a tournament record with its scoring spread of 42 points in beating Nebraska.

The previous worst beating in nine years on the tournament was a 33-point spread, 81-48, by Colorado over Harvard in 1948.

The Bears and Bufs will meet at 4 p. m. Thursday for the consolation title after a 2 p. m. game between Kansas and Nebraska for seventh place.
