KANSAS CITY, MO. —

Missouri took the title and Iowa State grabbed a comfortable third here Thursday night in the annual Big Seven Conference basketball tournament.

The slightest doubt as to which is the best conference team at present was erased as the nationally ranked (No. 11) Tigers bruised Kansas State, 89-71, the biggest margin ever in a title game.

Earlier the Cyclones, winners also of a great deal of respect, finally picked apart Oklahoma's zone defense and won, 71-64, for their second first-division finish in nine years.
