

strannigan wasn't so calm, a matter you could understandably, strannigan wasn't so calm.

but he was just as lucid. "it was our best game to date", he explained, "and against the best team we have met."

press-row opinion almost was unanimous in calling the cyclones the best iowa state team ever to show in nine years of tournament play.

strannigan's lads weren't so restrained.

"they're 16th national, ~~nehvx~~ hey", yelled ~~wetterxvxvx~~ guard larry wetter, "well, I guess we'll be going up then."

"after four years we finally beat 'em", shouted duncan. "I've been waiting for this for a long time. let's go all the way now."
