of the conference players who have taken part in eight previous meets. Guest team personnel is not included since their one-year stands eliminate a career chance of three or four years.

The 1954 trio seeking the circle are Chuck Duncan, Iowa State's 6-5 center; Bob "eiter, Missouri's 6-9 pivot, and Bob Jean-gerard, raven-haired Colorado forward. Oddly the latter. altho a four-year man, did ma will be competing in only his third tourney. He saw no action as a freshman.

two previous meets. He is averaging 18.8 points thru the Cyclones' five pre-meet games, xxxxx second best among pre-tourney scorers. If he maintains this mean thru the tourney he can press his Kansas City total to 133 points, comfortably beyond the century mark.

the character 100-club, since he has colected 75 in three previous meets.

The is travelling at a 13.0 clip, maintainence of which would shoot him to 114 for tour nament play.

Jeangerard, by matching his seasonal average of 11.7 can just maximx match 100 points. He needs 35 to reach the century level.

Two veterens, Burdette "aldorson, 6-8 Buffalo center and Oklahoma's Lester Lane, already are safely in the Century Circle with 108 and 107 points, respectively. And the former has seen action and in only seven games despite his pressional vetures was four-year stripes.

stretching his current 24.5 thru

By equaliting whis xempeant fixed average in tournament play, have can reach 181 points for four meets, a total which would place him second only to

Clyde Lovellette, the old Kansas collusus, who 's 222 in three meets appears appears safe for some time.