the sooners and jayhawkers will stage a rematch of their ragged, raging ~~final~~ tournament climax monday night in when they open the conference race at norman. if it is anything like wednesday's melee, ~~university~~ mt. oread ~~at~~ student closing hours will need extension. the two clubs fought for two full hours here strewing a new record of 70 fouls through the hectic milling.

oklahoma lost six men on fouls during the affair, the first of which, ~~walker~~ center bob waller, was the most damaging. he left with 7:12 remaining in the third quarter and oklahoma gradually slid into def at from that point. waller scored only 4 points, but he was the big man on the boards ~~and~~ was directly responsible for four early fouls on his 6-9 rival, b.h. born. the latter also was waived out with his fifth infraction before the third period closed.

~~hates~~ of nebraska in wednesday night's ~~open~~ preliminary. kansas state whacked iowa state, 98-77, for fifth, and colorado blasted washington, 81-60, for seventh, in afternoon affairs.
