

first night lead , daily oklahoman, spokane, okla city, okla.

kansas city, dec. 30.... punishing thax nebraska sorely on the backboards, missouri flogged nebraska, 72-57, for third place in the eighth annual big seven basketball tournament here wednesday night.

a capacity municipal auditorium crowd of 10,500 fans watched the tigers snare 42 rebounds against 26 for nebraska and win with ease through the final half. bob reiter, 6-8 be gal center, hooked in 26 points to pace the victors.

with fred segar and don weber firing two quick goals goals apiece at the start of the second period, the cornhuskers shot into their only lead of the night at 26-23. but gary filbert came off the tiger bench to bomb three long goals between two reiter hooks to pull thevix nax ma back into command for keeps at 34-28 with 3:48 remaining. the tigers pulled away f from this point.