

asile from lovellette, currently the nation's leading average scorer, these two sentinel tandems will pose the toughest defensive problem in the tourney. the fact that they are concentrated on two clubs means that opponents may be obliged to dig deep into their ranks to find two ~~blanket~~ blankets of similar speed and cleverness.

~~and~~ it was iverson who fired the wildcats past klahoma in the first round of last year's meet with a running right hander in the fading seconds which broke a 53-53 tie. ~~rousey~~ the meet also projected ~~rousey~~ rousey, then a sophomore, as a fine all-round hand.

lovellette, of course, will be the center of the battle of the keyhole. he will come into the meet leading the nation's major college scorers with an average of 28.1 in seven games. his latest blast was a 30-point ~~lead~~ charge against rugged brawny southern cal in lawrence saturday night.

two other returning post veterans are jim stange, ~~long~~ bespectacled 6-7 iowa starter, and missouri's rugged bill stauffer ~~the~~ one of the nation's ranking rebounders last winter.

newcomers include charles ott, 6-6, 220-pound nebraska freshman; bob reiter, spike-built missouri 6-8 yearling; and oklahom sophomore ~~jerry~~ bob waller, 6-6, and k-state's jack carby, the loop's ninth ranking scorer, at present, is another pivot who will bear watching. he'll be returning after a year's absence from tournament play since he wore ku silks in the 1949 affair, before transferring.

the huge kansas cityan stands 6-7 and scales can
 235. if the cats meet kansas ~~will~~ they ~~will~~ do so by winning their first round games ... his duel with lovellette, will be enough to pack the house.
