punishing the cyclones off both back

stauffer punished

6-4

the 215-pound stauffer punished the cyclones on both backboards over the full route and paced the ~~night~~ game's scorers as well, with 18 digits. he matched iowastate's full first half production of 14 points to fuel mu into a commanding lead which chick sutherland's gang never could quite wipe out.

shooting ~~only~~ a frigid 16 percent through the ~~first~~ opening two periods, the cardinal and gold fell behind as far as 16 points before reaching intermission trailing, 14-28.

the cyclones went 7 minutes 13 seconds without scoring a point ~~during~~ at one period in the ~~second~~ first half and almost 12 minutes without a field goal. this sealed their doom early ~~against~~ ~~the~~ ~~guarding~~ ~~pragmatic~~ ~~gain~~ ~~even~~ even though they rallied stoutly to haul within three points of the winners 8 midway through the final ~~stage~~ quarter.

center jim stange accounted for the squeeze with two free throws to bring the count to 40-43. but stauffer rose out of the keyhole to pot his final goal and gere landolt, who canned 13 points for the night, drove the baseline for two southpaw set-ups, to ice the issue
