WESTERN UNION PRESS MESSAGE

final night

W. P. MARSHALL, PRESIDENT

kansas city, mo., dec. 29.... kansas outlasted fighting missouri , 75-65, for the sixth annual big seven basketball tournament championship here friday in a riotous battle which saw a municipal auditorium throng of 9787 fans who bowed through the ~~last~~ final ~~four~~ ^{three} minutes of play after clyde lovellette, that jayhawks' all-american center was banished from the game.

the 244-pound all-american, stepped squarely on the chest of tiger guard win wilfong under the missouri basket as the latter lay prone on the planks. wilfong had rocked the big boy hard on a rebound and the giant jayhawk ^{apparently} ~~simply~~ lost his head in the clutch.

~~kansas~~ oklahoma fell before kansas state's flying wildcats , 69-84, in the third place preliminary.
