

WESTERN UNION PRESS MESSAGE

W. P. MARSHALL, PRESIDENT

the solid oaks of kansas state's tall timber, jack carby, dick knost

the win raised ku's victory chain to 10 for the season and 13 over the last two winters.

the solid oaks of kansas state's tall timber, jack carby, dick knostman, and jesse prisock, poured a triple of points and power
salute into the game but outmanned sooners in the first game.

pick up third ~~graph first night lead~~, fourth fifth, and sixth graphs first night lead.

with ou pressing 29-30 just before halftime, carby unwound four consecutive baskets and knostman two to forge a 40-32 purple lead at intermission.

when sherman norton hit two goals at the outset of the final 30 minutes, prisock took up the club by planting three 25-footer righthanders to draw the victors ~~next~~ aloft, 52-42.

knostman contributed two points and jim iverson six in the final three minutes when mceachern's final bucket hauled ou within range at 65-74.