

WESTERN UNION PRESS MESSAGE

W. P. MARSHALL, PRESIDENT

however, the pacificans got too eager with 30 seconds left and walsh fired one-handed from 22 feet. waller, who along with norton, played a superlative rebound game, cleared the rim and the oklahomans swept down for the clincher.

rogers pegged from 23 feet after three passes rogers' peg from 23 feet hit the front of the rim but norton wrestled the carom away from two opponents and rose to plant home his final points with just 26 seconds remaining.

waller and bill cummins got quick set-ups to pad the spread, the former taking another grossman bullet after the midget guard stole astanford pass.

behind 18-19 at the first quarter, ou soed into a 35-24 lead during the second period with norton rolling home four buckets. he gathered five more points before halftime to erect ou's 16-digit cushion at intermission.

stanford wheeling eternally on the break, stanford roared out through the third quarter for 24 points while ou was getting but seven. oklahoma braced in the final two minutes of the period to lead, 58-56, but were shoved behind on ramstead's tip-in a four minutes after the final stanza opened.

more