

one copy is to be a Christmas gift for my brother, Ward, whom you remember I know. He has a son Ward who already looks like a prospective basketball player.

We were delighted to hear about the Basketball record Kansas made last year. Hope we can listen to some ~~intentional~~ games over the air, one of these days, or better still, see K. U. play out here.

We believe Kansas' record in basketball is unequalled and we attribute much of