Dear Jane:

You are generally so prompt in returning things that it is not necessary for me to write you; however, you have one of our Better Basketball texts that I sent you for the girls to read. Won't you get some cardboard, wrap it up and mail it here as this is Athletic Association property. Mark on the outside of the textbook, "No advertising", because this book weighs three pounds. You may mail it for 6¢, a special textbook rate.

We read your fine letter yesterday and we were glad to know of your raise and your success.

Give all the girls my kindest regards and tell them that I always enjoy sitting in with intelligencia and pulchritude.

With love, I am,

Affectionately

Your Dad
