Dear Mr. Higgins,

I have your letter dated November 10 regarding my basketball text, Better Basketball.

This book contains the very best materials that I could gather. It has 163 photographs and 86 diagrams together with information on training and conditioning, treatment of athletic injuries, bandaging, emergencies, etc.

It also contains the "Tales of Yesteryear" which are experiences of our Varsity when they met opponents who were expected to win the game, but with a stroke of good fortune and a bit of strategy we turned the tables and won the game. I've written these stories so as to stimulate youth to greater and finer endeavor.

The cost of Better Basketball is $4.00. If you will mail me a check for that amount I will be glad to autograph and mail you a copy post-paid. If you would like any special thing said in your autograph I will be glad if you will indicate it. It will be a pleasure for me to send it. By sending this book C.O.D. it would cost you 25 or 30¢ more than under this method. I am desirous of saving you that much money.

Sincerely yours,
