Dear Dr. Allen:

Your voice certainly sounded good yesterday when you were announcing the football game; and I certainly got a thrill out of the game. From all indications it must have been a wonderful game to watch. I wish I could have been there to yell for H.U. I'm just as proud of H.U. as I have been the past four years. I hope the football team continues its good work and I'm sure it will.

I really am enjoying myself this year. I have approximately 320 seventh and eighth grade girls who are just little darlings. They really seem to enjoy gym and I certainly enjoy working with them. I have six gym classes every day and a home room besides. Then, too, there is always some organization having a picnic to which I am invited to furnish games and entertainment. It seems as tho that's a duty of the physical ed. teacher, for I've been roped in on several picnics already and have others coming up all the time. However, I enjoy them. I can think of many things that could be worse.

I don't think I was ever in a place where I was welcomed any
