Robert W. Raugh

Eliza Gamble, Instr., Sec. Education, Univ. of Nebr., writes: "Mr. Raugh has a pleasing and sympathetic personality that, I believe, will make him get along unusually well with high school pupils. In my classes he has also shown himself to be superior in ability to organize subject matter for teaching purposes. I feel sure that he will be a superior teacher."

D. X. Bible, Director of Athletics, Univ. of Nebr., writes: "I am pleased to recommend Mr. Raugh. I have known him for several years. He is a thorough student of sports, an untiring worker and of pleasing personality. He is honest, loyal and will cooperate in every way to promote the best interests of those with whom he is associated. He has had successful coaching experience. I can recommend him highly for any position for which he feels he is qualified."

Don A. Workman, Superintendent of Schools, Maxwell, Iowa, writes: "Mr. Raugh taught under me for two years. His teaching was very good. He knows the laws and principles of teaching and knows how to apply them. He is one of the best high school coaches I have ever seen. His team was one of the eleven undefeated teams in the state of Iowa. As a football coach I cannot praise him too highly. He knows the game thoroughly and loves it. I recommend him for both teaching and coaching, without reservation."
