

December 9, 1938.

Mr. Arthur Griffin,
Centreville, Maryland.

Dear Mr. Griffin:

Mr. Charles Cramer, of the Cramer Chemical Company of Gardner, Kansas, has forwarded to me your inquiry regarding basketball plays, and so forth.

I believe you will find my new text, "Better Basketball", just what you need. All the latest developments of the game are thoroughly explained in this book, and much time is spent in explaining plays and play situations. The book is profusely illustrated with diagrams and illustrations. I am enclosing some descriptive material in which you might be interested.

"Better Basketball" is published by McGraw-Hill and Company of New York, and sells for $4.00. It is available at most sporting goods houses, but if you desire an autographed copy I shall be very happy to send you one postpaid on receipt of your check or money order for $4.00. I shall be glad to hear from you.

Very sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
