a highschool backetball team They fust completed a new regulation segt gymnasium here last egear and previous to that time very lettle baskethall was played - Decunse the high school boys have only played hall one season d'am confronted with a real problem that is of putting a team in our lea que Conserence which will be able to compete with other teams That have played basketball all thru the grades -I have always coached the five man defense and followed the plan of playing a zone defense This has worked very satisfactorily with experiences teams but my main question so -What kind of a defense would you suggest for a learn with this limited experience! In my previous coaching the