My dear Phog:

It was generous for you to write as you did. We were glad to buy the books because we thought that we got our money's worth. We appreciate, and I am sure the readers will be intensely interested in, your autographing the books. I, myself, have enjoyed reading the book and our librarian reported the other day that she was swamped with calls for the books.

As a matter of interest I am inclosing copies of a couple of letters I am writing today.

Cordially yours,

Neal M. Wherry
