Dear Dr. Allen:

I regret that I shall be out of N.Y. when you and the boys will be here. However, I have arranged for you to go to the Fred Waring show which we broadcast. Ole Nesmith has the tickets for you and the gang. I chose this broadcast because it is an early show and is out at eight which will not ruin your evening for other things.

I trust that you will enjoy N.Y. and that you will take the victors cup back with you.

Best wishes for Christmas and the New Year.

Sincerely,

Blevins Davis
