The team will leave Lawrence, Kansas on the Santa Fe Streamliner at 1:00 P.M., arriving in Chicago at 9:30 P.M. They will stay at the Allerton Hotel while in Chicago, leaving Chicago next morning at 9:15 A.M. for Ann Arbor, Michigan, arriving there at 2:23 P.M.

The Kansas team will work out in the Michigan Field House and stay in Ann Arbor at the Michigan Union, leaving Ann Arbor at 7:01 A.M., December 25. They will arrive at Niagara Falls at 1:27 P.M., leaving Niagara Falls at 8:30 P.M. and arriving at Buffalo at 9:30 P.M. Christmas night.

The team will leave Buffalo, on pullman, at 9:54 P.M. Christmas night and arrive at West Point, New York, U.S. Military Academy, at 9:20 A.M. the boys will work out at the Academy Field House, leaving West Point later in the afternoon to arrive in New York in time to take their luggage to the Hotel Piccadilly, where they will stay during the time they are in New York. They will then go to Madison Square Garden and work out between halves of the Illinois-Manhattan College game. Santa Clara, California and City College of New York also play the same night.

On the 27th, Mr. Irish will provide a place for the team to practice as Madison Square Garden will have an ice carnival there on that date. On the 28th the Kansas team will play Fordham.

The team will leave New York on the 29th for Philadelphia, staying at the Strath Haven Inn, Swarthmore, Pennsylvania, which is a suburb just outside of Philadelphia. The Strath Haven Hotel is where the Pennsylvania football team stays in retreat before their big games. The Kansas team will practice at the Swarthmore Field House, where Coach Bill Stetson has given us the run of the place. Temple will be played in the Municipal Auditorium in Philadelphia on December 30.

On December 31 the team will go to Washington, D.C., where they will spend the day visiting the F.B.I. Building in Washington, as well as the trip to Mount Vernon, etc.
