Competitive Log

Each member of the Kansas team will write an account of his daily sight-seeing activities, portraying the highlights of the day's events. A prize will be given each day of a double-rich creamy malted milk to the boy writing the best account of the day's events. This prize sheet will be sent home to the Physical Education Office, where it will be mimeographed. Then each day's activities will be compiled into a small booklet and these booklets will be distributed to the team members who are expected to send one to their parents. What about your sweetie?

The Selection Committee on Essays is composed of Jim Arnold, Chairman, Howard Engleman and Charles Walker.

To the team member winning the most first's, the grant prize will be a necktie.

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation
Varsity Basketball Coach
