

April 2, 1945.

Mr. Dan Bolen,
Public Utility Building,
Salina, Kansas.

Dear Dan:

It is not necessary for me to write you a note, since I said that unless you heard from me in a half-hour the thing was all set. Well, it is, but I am writing now to tell you that I will not come on the train. I will probably drive and I will look you up when I get in town.

I have some other appointments and I am not sure exactly just when I will get over to Salina, but I will be in some time in the afternoon and will make it a point to look you up at your place. So don't worry about me, Mister. I will be on the job in ample time to meet the salubrities and celebrities of Salina.

Anticipating the pleasure of seeing you and chewing the fat, I am, with kindest personal regards,

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
