

March 11, 1944.

Mr. Maurice L. Breidenthal, President,
Security National Bank,
Kansas City, Kansas.

Dear Maurice:

I always succumb to the wiles of a banker. Somehow I can always detect more than a gleam of human kindness in your glass eye. You have something in the heart. And to be utterly frank with you, I like you a lot.

So any time you ask me to do anything you can always count on it if there is any way for me to make connections. I will be with you on April 6th, Thursday noon, at the Gould Hotel. I too wonder why in the dickens they ask me up there so much. You should give me a button. And when you mention my age, you know that because you know how old you are!

I received a nice letter from Maurice, Jr., giving me his new address. We are keeping him on the mailing list for our Jayhawk Rebounds.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
