

January 22, 1944.

Mr. Don Isett,
Metropolitan Supply Co.,
602-616 Third Street, S.E.,
Cedar Rapids, Iowa.

Dear Don:

It was mighty nice of you to ask me to speak at your Y.M.C.A. all-sports banquet. It will be a pleasure for me to accept.

Would it not be better for you to offer possibly two or three dates that would be most convenient to you? Then I will check with my dates and submit the one that is most acceptable to me from your agreeable dates.

It will be a great pleasure to see you again and to visit with my good friend, Ira Carrithers, of whom I am very fond.

It is a fact that I will have to travel a little farther than many that you have had, so if it is agreeable with you, you could figure the extra expense according to your own angle and I would be very happy with it. If this will be any embarrassment to you, of course I would not want you to do it, but the travel is quite an item of expense these days and I thank you for taking that into account.

I am planning on having a fine visit with you when I come up and I will try still to do something in regard to the other matter if possible.

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.
