Mr. Clifton Cornwell
Director of Bureau of Alumni Activities
State Teachers College
Kirksville, Missouri

Dear Mr. Cornwell:

Thank you very much for your very good special delivery letter of October 7, in which you sent me full information on the homecoming. I am very sure that this material will be sufficient for me in working out what I have to say. I thank you very much.

Mrs. Allen is expecting to accompany me. We will be very happy to be your guests. She received the formal invitation the other day.

Thirty minutes is ample time to do the job; in fact, someone has said that no one is converted after twenty minutes of preaching, so that gives me ten more minutes. Since I have read Dale Carnegie, I will know "how to lose friends and influence people". This is the reverse angle of Dale's and I hope it will not work that way.

Very cordially yours,

Director of Physical Education and Recreation
Varsity Basketball Coach
