Dear Dr. Allen:

Under separate cover is being mailed a formal invitation to you and Mrs. Allen. We hope that it will be possible for Mrs. Allen to accompany you.

I am enclosing quite a little material that will give you some background for the entire affair. I know how much one appreciates stuff of this sort. I have only the following to say concerning your address: take about thirty minutes to do just the kind of thing that you know will satisfy the demands for such a situation.

Let me hear from you if you desire any other details in any connection.

Sincerely yours,

Clifton Cornwell
