

NORTHEAST MISSOURI
STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE
KIRKSVILLE, MISSOURI

September 19, 1940

Dear Old Bulldog:

Here comes the announcement of that HOME-COMING that so many of you declared last year you would help Blue Key make bigger and better than ever, if we could but shift the time to Saturday.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 26, IT IS.

That was a great meeting last year, probably one of those never-again gatherings with "Curly" and so many of the old crowd. This year's reunion will certainly be of that nature, because along with our returning for football, visiting, and seeing the changes that have come to make the OLD SCHOOL a power for twice the student body of former years, we also come to dedicate the JOHN R. KIRK MEMORIAL.

We come to dedicate one of the most beautiful college buildings in America to the memory of the man who bred and trained the Bulldogs and created for us the famous BULLDOG SPIRIT that comes to dominate our college life and all of our activities when the campus days are history.

THE PROGRAM

- 10:00 General Assembly and Dedication
- 12:00 Informal Luncheons
- 1:30 Parade
- 2:00 The Bulldogs vs. Iowa Wesleyan
- 6:00 Home-Coming Banquet
- 9:00 Home-Coming Dance

Just as before, Blue Key has arranged a schedule of activities such as to give plenty of time for visiting, football, and seeking out old haunts and old companions. And, unless you want to, you won't have to make speeches.

You will want to come early for the speeches at the Dedication by Dean William H. Zeigel and J. C. Williams.

You will want to see and hear a Karl Webb band that's bigger and finer than ever.

You will want to gather with us at the banquet to break bread again with kindred spirits and hear that peerless orator on things athletic, Dr. Forrest C. "Phog" Allen, Director of Athletics, University of Kansas.

WRITE ME AT ONCE ON THE ENCLOSED CARD TELLING ME THAT YOU WILL BE HERE AND HOW MANY BANQUET TICKETS YOU WILL WANT.

Sincerely yours,

Cliff
