Mr. Forrest C. Allen,

Lawrence, Kansas.

Dear Phog.

Bill Hill the sales manager for the Beacon Falls Rubber Shot Co. managed to get hold of a pair of size 9 in those special Basketball Shoes which you ordered for use of one of your players.

He turned them over to me today and I have sent them to you by parcel post.

Now I believe that I told you in my former letter that they are not in production on these shoes and have no price as far as I know at present on them.

Bill said that he did not know whether or not the factory was going to bill us for this pair of shoes, but if they do, I will just mail you a bill for them but if they do not bill us with them, you can consider this another try out pair with the compliment to the Beacon Falls Rubber Footwear Co.

You undoubtedly will receive the shoes at the same time you get this letter.

With best wishes.

Yours very truly,
R. S. ELLIOTT ARMS CO.

P.S. Since writing the above, we have received the enclosed letter from John Balinsky, Sales Promotion Manager of Beacon Falls Rubber Footwear Co. and therefore there will be no charges for the shoes and we hope you will report to us, if you get the opportunity, just how you like these shoes and what the experience of your player was with them.
