

December 11, 1941.

Mr. John Balinsky,
Sales Promotion Manager,
Beacon Falls Rubber Footwear,
Beacon Falls, Conn.

Dear Mr. Balinsky:

Mr. Jack Elliott, of R. S. Elliott Arms Company, Kansas City, has told me of your kindness in not charging us for the basketball shoes which we are testing with two of our players.

These two boys are hard chargers, and as I told Jack Elliott, if the shoes hold up for these boys they will hold up for anyone. We are giving them a thorough test. We think it is a pretty fine shoe, but of course we can tell more about it after testing.

With appreciation of your fine cooperation,

I am

Very sincerely yours,

FCA:AH

Director of Physical Education and Recreation, Varsity Basketball and Baseball Coach.

cc - Jack Elliott.