

Look at Kansas' Labor Record

[Part of an Advertisement]

A peculiarly happy combination of circumstances seems to set Kansas labor head and shoulders above that with which industry has to contend in many localities.

True, Kansas labor legislation is modern. The present laws were enacted only four years ago; have recently survived a Supreme Court test. But the enviable record of Kansas labor is due primarily to the quality of labor personnel rather than to laws. Kansas labor, largely of rural origin, is willing to do a day's work for a day's wage; is habitually contented.

DO YOU KNOW Why
You Can't Remember
A SINGLE GENERAL STRIKE
IN KANSAS?

The reason is simple . . . Kansas has never experienced a general strike. And with exception of local work stoppages of short duration has not had a serious strike for more than a quarter-century . . . an enviable record!

THERE ARE OTHER REASONS

Kansas labor is intelligent; cooperative; American born. Kansas Labor Legislation is FAIR BOTH WAYS hence avoids cause for misunderstandings and inequalities that breed discontent. Labor, Management and Government work together to effect profitable, pleasant relationships—an advantage you can enjoy in Kansas.

GET THE FACTS . . .

★ Before completing your postwar plans you will want to read our brochure Let's Look Into Kansas. Mailed to industrial executives on request.

KANSAS INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION

Wm. E. LONG, Secretary-Director

805 Harrison, E

Topeka, Kansas

KANSAS Really MEETS INDUSTRY HALF WAY