

December 9, 1944.

Justice William A. Smith,
The Supreme Court,
Topeka, Kansas.

Dear Judge Bill:

I have sent Donald a Jayhawk Rebounds together with a short note from my desk, wishing him well and welcoming him to K.U. after the fuss is over.

I have a text here, Practical Football, by H. O. "Fritz" Crisler and E. E. "Tad" Wieman, and I also have one by Lou Little and Bernie Bierman, printed by the Whittlesey House of McGraw-Hill and Company. The price of the Crisler book is $3.00. It hasn't been used at all, but if you would like to have it for $2.50, I would be glad to let you have it.

If you would want me to mail it from here to Donald I will be glad to do so and pay the postage, and send you the bill. Or I will send it to you and you can mail it to him. The reason that I am suggesting this is that I am afraid many of the publishing houses are out of this book, and by the time you would write to Lowe & Campbell they might have to sent to McGraw-Hill for it, which would delay the time of delivery. So if you want it soon, I believe this is the best bet.

You let me know, Bill, and I will follow your orders in the matter.

With all good wishes, I am

Sincerely yours,

Director of Physical Education,
Varsity Basketball Coach.

FCA:AH