Dear "Doc" Allen,

A week or two ago I was cheerfully walking back and forth to classes at the great school, K. U. and with the passing of these last two weeks and a vivid change of environment I ~~we~~ ^{am} ~~are~~ merely walking back and forth to classes in an ~~altogether~~ all-together different mood. We are facing a tough course in O. C. S. here at Camp Davis, North Carolina. Hopes for leaving as an officer are slim since a new set up
