

NAVY SUPPLY CORPS SCHOOL
HARVARD UNIVERSITY

Boston, Mass.
23 April 1944.

Dear "Doc":

Many thanks for the "Jayhawk Rebounds" No. 8; I enjoyed reading it so much and to note the splendid record so many Jayhawkers are making in this terrible struggle --- many of us are doing so little and others so much, but such is beyond our control. Prospects for my active duty are somewhat brighter, but I am not planning on it too much; all I can do is to keep on requesting. Looks as if I may be transferred around June 1st; I hope that it will be possible to come by for that round of golf.

Things at Harvard are per usual. Most K. U. boys of my day have gone out to parts unknown; Walter Claasen, Harry O'Reilly, and Ted North are still in these parts, but they will soon be on their way.

We have had a lonely spring so far -- unusual for New England. I have not played any golf, but I have been playing a little soft ball with the boys. My duties have eased off the past few months and I am feeling much better.

Received a couple very interesting and cleverly written letters from Bill Shney; do hope the boy gets a break after the war.

Well I will close for today. Hope to see you in the near future. Till then, I remain,

Sincerely,
H. H. Shannon.

P.S. Dave Fisher gave me this fancy paper as he was packing to leave for the Pacific.