Dear Sir,

This letter is to ask your opinion on the best type of defense against a team that fast breaks, a zone defense or man-to-man. We've had alot of opinions in the barracks as to basket-ball & the types of defense but used.

I'd appreciate a your voice on the subject as I've been told & heard alot about your basket ball coaching.

The kind of defense we're talking about is to be played against a team that is fast breaking when ever they have the ball.

Sincerely your

a/c R. J. Stone
