

leg had to be placed in a cast because of some weakness around the ankle. The doctor said the cast would have to be on at least three weeks + maybe six. I'm hoping whatever is wrong will soon correct itself.

I'm digressing from my story. So with the opening here in Corpus, I was given the chance to come here. Naturally I took it. I arrived here by myself Easter morning. Three weeks later my wife arrived.

My hours at the bakery are rather long. I go to work at eight + usually leave the plant at nine or ten P.M. The work is confining but it's very interesting. I have to give up many pleasures by my long hours but, perhaps, in time I shall reap the rewards.
